

Student Ambassador

Information and Application

What is a Student Ambassador?

Student Ambassadors serve as representatives of HGTC for important events, including Orientation Sessions, Open Houses, Enrollment Days, Welcome Week, Group & Campus Tours, and other college-wide functions. HGTC strives to provide information, support, and resources to help students and college officials have a successful academic and extracurricular experience. A Student Ambassador aids in this mission by providing their time and assistance during these meaningful events. Above all, the Student Ambassador position is one of privilege, and must be treated as such. It is an opportunity to distinguish yourself from others at Horry Georgetown Technical College by actively participating in college sponsored events.

What does a Student Ambassador do?

Student Ambassadors provide guidance and information about Horry Georgetown Technical College to new and continuing students, their families, and other campus visitors.

The responsibilities of an Ambassador include:

- Representing the college in a professional and ethical manner at all times.
- Leading group and campus tours throughout the academic year
- Assisting with all aspects of college events, including but not limited to:
 - Set-up, greeting guests, helping with check-in, and clean-up for program events.
 - Sharing personal experiences to answer questions that may pertain to HGTC and the College environment.

What are the minimum qualifications to apply?

To apply for a position, you must:

- Have completed your first semester with HGTC and have a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA.
Students must also maintain this GPA to continue their employment as a Student Ambassador
- Be enrolled in at least 6 credits each semester for both Fall and Spring.
- Remain in good judicial standing with the College during your tenure in the position, not violate the Student Code of Conduct, and conduct yourself in an appropriate manner as is reflected by the Student Conduct Code both in person and electronically via the Internet (Twitter, Facebook, etc.).

What are the mandatory job requirements?

If you are selected to serve as an Ambassador, you must commit to the following:

- Attend a Student Ambassador Training every semester you are employed.
- Provide a minimum of 10 campus tours during the Academic Year.
- Assist in a minimum of 5 Campus Events during the Academic Year

*While the above events encompass the majority of your requirements, some participation may be required on an as needed basis.

What is the compensation?

Ambassadors will receive a $300 stipend, provided they meet the agreed-upon obligations of the position and work at the required events. In addition, Ambassadors will receive two HGTC polo shirts to wear for campus events.

In some instances, it may be necessary for Ambassadors to car pool with a staff member in the College van to travel to HGTC events. Staff reserves the right to make special considerations in order to be inclusive of students who may need transportation assistance.

The Student Ambassador position offers insight into the collegiate atmosphere and administrative capacities, not normally afforded to most students. This is a chance to gain knowledge and experience by performing above and beyond normal role of a college student. Being an ambassador is an excellent addition to your resume. The Student Ambassador position is also an excellent opportunity to develop your networking skills through the interaction with faculty, staff, and students. These skills will aid you throughout your life, especially, in such a mobile work environment.
